DAKIN'S PURE VOLATILE EUCALYPTUS OIL,🕾

DISTILLED FROM THE LEAVES OF SELECTED SPECIES OF THE EUCALYPTUS.

I UCALYPTUS" OIL bas long taken a foremost place as a "household remedy" in Australia. When applied externally it has a powerful stimulating and soothing action, but does not blister the most sensitive skin, and no application known will so quickly subdue the pain of muscular rheumatism.

Taken internally in small doses, it acts as powerful stimulant and antipasmodic, whilst its secondary action induces sleep. The penetrating agreeable vapor of the Oil is sedative, and when inhaled relieves Asthma. Bronchitis, Catarrh and Sore Throat. It is also a most powerful antiseptic and germicide, being three times as effectual as Carbolic Acid in preventing development of Bacteria, its uses in this direction being very

The active properties of the Oil depend upon a Terpene called Eucalyptol, and we guarantee this Oil, prepared especially for us, to contain the largest obtainable percentage of Eucalyptol and twice that of the ordinary Eucalyptus Oil of

It can be used with great benefit in all Throat and Lung Affections, and it's sedative stimulating properties make it an invaluable application in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, &c, whilst its powerful antiseptic and germicide action is well exhibited as a dressing in Wounds, Ulcers, Burns, Scalds, ENGLAND AND THE FRANCO-RUSSIAN TREATY. LONDON, October 10th.

The Times, discussing the reported imminent ratification of a treaty of alliance and friendship between Russia and France, considers that England, in protection of her own interests, will have to exercise redoubled vigilance.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE P. & O. S. N. Co.'s steamer Gwallor left Singapore for this port at 8 a.m. yesterday.

"SEA-SICKNESS," says a modern wit, "is like a bellef-in-ghosts; no one will admit that troubles him, but every one has misgivings on

THE P. M. S. S. Co.'s steamer China, with mails, &c., from San Francisco to the 26th ulto. has arrived at Yokohama, and will leave for this port to-morrow.

THE Prince of Wales, as is well known, speaks English with a decidedly German accent, and his eldest son, Prince Albert Victor, has inherited this peculiarity.

Mr. Peak (at Government House).—Did you see Mrs. Guff in her new dress? Miss Swatow.—No. I was with a gentleman as she passed and I didn't dare to look.

A SAILING vessel is now being constructed for Messrs. W. Lowden & Co., of Liverpool, at the yard of Mr. Bigger, Londonderry, to carry s cargo of 4,200 tons dead-weight. She will be a leviathan of her class.

THE late O'Gorman Mahon once rose and informed the House of Commons that there were only three personages who had beyond all doubt n title to a "The," and they were The Pope, The Devil, and The O'Gorman Mahon.

THE rumour that a certain local celebrity, whose moustachies have been the envy of all our swell-"mashers" for years past, has been fixed upon as."the Beast" in the forthcoming A.D.C. (or is it Choral Society?) pantomime, must be accepted under all reserve. It is about even betting that "Brownie" is selected for the distinguished honour.

MR. H. CARMICHARL, of the firm of Carmichael and Co.; was summoned before Mr. A. G. Wise to-day at the instance of Detective Green with having exported a rifle and a few rounds; ammunition contrary to a special ordinance that has recently been made law. The case was trivial one indicative only of officiousness on the part of the police and Mr. Wise promptly dealt with it as such.

SHE was a girl with large features, and had a mouth which attracted general attention. she leaned against the railing and watched the waves she suddenly exclaimed :-- "Oh, James how grand! Seems as if I could open my mouth and take it all in !? "But you won't, will you?" entreated a boy who stood by, "Maand I have come three hundred miles to see the seaf and we don't like to lose it the very first day."

MASON, the fourth-class idiot who was erreited the other day in Shanghai, for being, concerned in some dynamics confravention of the law escaped from gaol on the afternoon of the ath last, by walking out of the building wherein he was not confined. He was, of course, calight equally, of course, that was what he wanted We have no spare space, in which to advertise monenties of this class. Mason may be a pure patriot than George Washington or Garibaldi. and he may be not. Who shall say?

LONDON Hasuk in referring to the refusal of Mr. Justice Hend Collins to grant a fiat for the criminal prosecution of the oditor of the Star forlibel, sensibly remarks :- "There are laws to regulate newspapers, and, therefore, newspaper: men are recognised things, and not outlaws, and are entitled to the full benefit of the laws. Mistakes, as in other branches of industry, must consume this in his presence, uncooked, each occur in newspapers, and it is very right that day. At the end of a week scurvy had disthey should be atoned for ; but if a builder appeared. The same captain had a similar case accidentally drops a brick on a man in the on sailing from one of the Australian ports. afreet and breaks his arm, be is not prosecuted for attempted murder, and therefore, except in the latter case having recently returned from very deliberate and exceptional cases, an editor Valparaiso." DIRECTORY" may be sent to the following should not be prosecuted criminally for libel, for, as a rule, an action for damages more than suffices for any supposed wrong. The public and the Bench seem to imagine that editors live by publishing libels. This is a mistake. No editor unless he is a lunatic ever wants to have a libel case, though every paper from the Times downwards has had thousands of them. With very law. exceptions they are the result of pure accident. With bonne samaraderie, jolly hilarity. or an bonest effort to protect the public from Feminine beauty and masculine grace. scoundrels. It is quite the exception for an editor to publish derogatory remarks about anyone out of personal animus. It'may sometimes appear so but, as a sule, he knows more than appears on the surface, and is merely performing his duty in warning his Messrs. Kelly & Walsh, Limited, readers against some unscrupulous blackguard. Of course, as in all walks of life, there are exceptions about which I have no defence to make. I congratulate the Star on its success in "getting "the application for criminal" proceedings dismissed, though, of course, I offer no further opinion about the matter complained of than to say it was a mistake honestly made in a matter of grave public interest, and therefore not a subject for eximinal proceedings."

AFFAIRS IN AMOY. A correspondent writes under date the 8th

Several letters and paragraphs relating more or less to the local affairs of this port have lately appeared in the columns of the Hongkong Telegraph, which are to a great extent ridiculous and untrue, and as I am sure you do not want to publish anything but the truth I send you the following :--

It is well known that the Chinese authorities here are not alarmed by the symptoms of rebellion, as stated in your issue of the 1st instant. The Admiral executed five and not two men, who he had every reason to believe-were, Ko-lao-bul agents.

In your issue of the 30th September appears: an article headed "China as a Menace to Christendom;" also that "The Governor of Amoy points out the danger of her advancement." What is stated under that heading is idiotic.

On the 4th July a dinner was given at the American Consulate, at which 12 persons were present, consisting of the American Consul, Maianal, and Interpreter, five missionaries. Customs tidewaiter, the Marine Surveyor, and the proprietor of the Amoy Times and his wife, No Consul for any other nation was present, and not one of the mercantile community. Mr. Tsin Chin Chung is the interpreter at the Consulate and does not hold any office whatever in the Chinese Government, but I believe it bore. the expense of his education in America. The gentleman referred to is no more likely to be Governor of this Province than the writer is to be King of Great Britain, and if he ever did make such a speech as recorded in the New York Sun, and which appeared in the columns of the now defunct Amoy Times, it did not attract one iots of attention in the foreign colony of Amoy; the community at this little port have too much common-sense to pay! any attention to such subbish, the few who did.

treated it with profound contempt.

A letter which also appeared in the same issue dat d Amoy the 26th of September says that the Europeans have not been idle. The island of Kulangau, where they all live, has been divided into three military districts under the course of the warlods Consula. All the fire-arms have been brought out and cleaned up, and arrange. ments made for instructing volunteers in taction and the mission of arms. This is entirely false what actually occused is simply this in member of the community who probably has a few rifles to dispose of, sent a circular round inviting the residents to form a Rifle Association and a meeting was held in the Amoy Club. least twenty of the residents, were present and ready to discuss the advisability of forming such an Association, when a certain individual who makes himself conspicuous on Kulgangsu by appearing in Chinese costume occasionally, entered the room with a Winchester repeating sific in his hand. As soon as he had a chance to speak, he said that no doubt several of those present, who had at one time belonged to the great armies of the world, were able and willing to teach others who were not accustomed to the use of fire-arms, and proposed certain residents as a committee. One gentleman declined the honour as he had never been in any of the great armies of the world, A committee was however, formed and Mr. W. C. Lewis appointed secretary. The gentleman with the rifle then praised the style of weapon he had in his hand. and started to explain the working of it, at the same time informing one of those present (in answer to inquiry) that it was loaded. In a remarkably short space of time nearly every one had-left the room, and wisely sane man entering a room full of people with a loaded repeating rifle in his hand, to explain the working of it? He surely thought that the whole lot were a set of savages who had neverseen a gun of that description before; whereas, the majority knew equally as much, if not more themselves than anything else. As a member of the Club I must confess I am surprised that the committee has apparently taken no notice whatever of the above occurrence.

On the night of the 4th inst. a gang of robbers | punished. . The Yamin concerned is to take broke into a house, the residence of a British mota. subject, in a small village close to Amoy city, and after lodging a bullet in his breast and smashing everything in the house, decamped with about $2,000 worth of plunder. I hear the wounded man is not expected to recover.

Now for brighter news; the most popular resident of Amoy, Mr. Francis Cass is to be married on the 10th inst. to Miss Florence Macgowan, daughter of the Rev. A. Macgowan, our oldest resident of Amoy. Yet another; Mr. W. I. Hewett of the I.M. Customs, also a very popular resident of Amoy, is to be married two weeks later to Miss Marie Madden, who has just arrived from England, and had the misfortune to be on board the steamer Palamed when that vessel encountered the worst of the typhoon near Swatow on the 22nd September. Both bridal parties have I am sure the very best wishes of the whole community.

THE NANKING MEMORIAL.

The following memorial on the subject of the recent riots in these provinces appears in the Peking Gazette of 23rd September :-

H.E. the Southern Superintendent of Trade, Liu K'un-yi, and the Governor of Kiangsu, Kang Yi, submit a memorial in which they report the action that has been taken for the settlement of the various missionary cases which have occurred in the Prefecture of Chinklang and in other departments of the province of Klangsu. During the current year's business will show profitable the fourth moon of the present year, in consequence of the dissemination of lying rumours, the missionary premises at Wuhu were burnt down, and then followed in close succession the burning and destruction of missionary property at Tanyang, Chinkuci, Wusieh, Yanghu, Klangyin, and Jukao. Officers were deputed to hold an investigation, and although the facts elicited showed that the rioting was more serious in some places than in others, theleading feature everywhere was the fabrication | this sum to the shareholders, in terms of the see whether any sting had caused injury to the of baseless rumours by acoundrels lurking in concealment, who incited the populace to riotous proceedings, their object being to take advantage of the occasion to commit incendiarism and billage and so cause a catastrophe of the gravest moment. In the various other districts of the province false rumours were subsequently widely. circulated and anonymous placards made their appearance. The memorialists beg to observe that foreign missionaries, in establishing churches in China for the propagation of their faith, are acting within their Treaty rights, and that in carrying on at the same time foundling institutions and charity schools, they are doing nothing but evincing their devoted philanthropy. The following is the report for presentation to the fifteenth ordinary general meeting of share holders to be held at the offices of the Company. Hankow Road, Shanghai, on Monday, the twenty-sixth day of October 1801, at 2.30 p.m. precisely:--

The Directors desire to submit to the shareholders the annexed statement of the Company's accounts to noth June 1891. 1890 .- The balance at credit of this account on 30th Tune last, was Tacls 100,238.08 and claims to the extent of Taels 78,837.18 have since been paid. It is a source of disappointment and regret to the Directors to have to report that, while these figures leave no bood of any profit, the further claims which may be expected will probably result in a loss upon the year's working. 1891.-Compared with the corresponding period of the previous year, there is a considerable decrease, in the premium income for the half-year ended 30th June, but this is chiefly due to the restriction of the Company's general underwriting account, and there is a satisfactory reduction in the amount paid in respect of losses and claims. The balance of the working account is Taels 444,996 94 and the Directors are sanguine that Since the date to which the accounts are made up, the premis entered in the Company's Books amount to Tacls 183,702.29, and the payments during the same period, for losses and claims, were Taels, 102,504.03.

Interest on Reserve Fund .-- The Interest accumulated upon the Reserve Fund during the eighteen months ended 30th June 1861, amounts to Tacls 25,071.27, and it is now proposed to pay ticles of association, TREATY STIPULATIONS IN REGARD TO ITS NAVIGATION.

-For-many-years-the-navigation-of-the-Dardancties, the strait that unites the Algean sea and the rea of Marmera, has been a subject of dispute. Turkey, whose territory is cut in twain vessel of war shall be permitted to pass the straits, and has always so maintained, though not successfully. In 1770 a Russian squadron under Lord Elphinstone, in 1801 the American frigate George Washington under Commodore Bainbridge, and in 1807 an English fleet under Admiral Duckworth forced passages through the forbidden straits. In 1809, however, the English Government recognized the prohibitive rights of Turkey, and in 1841 the five great powers of Europe combined in a similar agreement, The treaty of Paris in 1856 recognized the rights of Turkey, but in 1858 the United States United States not being a party to the treaty. In 1871, at the conference of the powers in commerce of all nations.

The treaty of Berlin continued in force those provisions of the London conference with regard to the navigation of the Dardanelles. While it is not stipulated that all the powers must be treated alike in the privileges that may be accorded to them in this connection, yet from the feeling manifested it is evident that there was a tacit understanding of that kind.
